hunt in the forest, title

EMILY KIELB - RABBIT CLASS.

(Solemnly)

(cracking)

I was once told never to go near the one and only window in the house. One rainy day I walked solemnly to the window, my heart was beating fast. My fingers touched the glass. They slipped down in slow motion. I felt like my heart was cracking in sadness when I realized that my sister and my mum had been put under a spell in the forest and they were hiding at my front door not moving. They had gone out to find black berries for our pie. I don't know what to do with them. They were just using there. One sunny day I decided to help them. So I went out side into my shed and took out my fathers sharp solid sword and a metal shield. I got my boots on and set out into the forest. It was dark but the sun came into the forest a bit. I looked around for the nite bottle to cure my family. Out from a tree was a little wooden house. I decided to check it out. I opened the creeky door and I took out my sword. There was a chair with a tufted of hair poking out from it. A... Goblin, he stood up he got out his sword and they we began to fight. I nearly hit his head with my sword, but I missed. I kicked the Goblin onto the floor. The goblin moved slowly backwards. He grabbed a spell from the table and gave it to me. I let him get up and sit down.

I climbed down to the ground. I looked at the bottle. I carefully took the lid off it and drank a bit. My whole body turned into a blue flash and I could freeze things. It was rather exciting. I kept on walking until a massive (skeleton) skeleton appeared from behind a bush.

It had a bow and arrow in his hand. I took out only my shield.

The skeleton took one look at me and fired an arrow. I then took out my sword. This skeleton wasn't like the goblin. He didn't give me a power. I froze the skeleton.

End

I came to a river with no way across.

I froze the water to make a path. I was nearly at the end of the path when a long wide worm type of shark came up in front of me. I poked my sword into its neck and froze it. I smashed the ice. Inside the shark was the (potion) potion to cure my family. I caught it and made an ice trap leading to my house. On the way I picked some black berries for my pie and ran home. I put the spell onto my sister and my mum.

They woke up and smiled. The End
