

Year 6 Leavers' Quiz

Round 1: Name the film!

Which film is represented by these minimalist posters?

Q4.

Q5.

Round 5: The Thursday Quiz.

Can you answer these questions all related to Thursdays?

Q1. What was the date last Thursday?

Q2. Which England cricketer was suspended for the next test last Thursday for breaching the team lockdown rules?

Q3. Which famous British singer wrote a song named after the theme of this quiz round?

Q4. What place was photographed last Thursday from a distance of 77 million kilometres away in a joint venture by the European Space Agency and NASA?

Q5. Last Thursday, what city was suggested as an alternative for the Houses of Parliament if they should need to move from London?

Round 6: Bonus Lightning Round.

Each of these questions has been suggested by a teacher or LSA in Year 6.

Each question has their own answer worth one point each but some questions have bonus points available. For bonus points in Q8, can you match the question to the teacher who asked it?

Q1. How many toes does a guinea-pig have?

Q2. How many noses does a slug have: 1,2,3, or 4?

Q3. Last year, England won the cricket world cup, in a thrilling match that went to a super over. Who are the winners of the previous 3 cricket world cups? 1 point for each correct country.

BONUS POINT: Can you name the host countries that the team one in? (one point for each correct host country)

Q4. What is the national animal of Finland?

Q5. Mrs Wallis's favourite German word is 'Eichhörnchen' but what does it mean?

A Guinea pig B Squirrel C Hippo

Q6. Who drove the moon buggy that transported Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin on the moon for the first landing?

Q7. In the Avengers, how many infinity stones are there'?,

BONUS POINT: What are each of the names of the infinity stones?

Teacher	They asked question....
Miss H
Mr W
Mr D
Mr P	