

The Week Ahead

Term 3 Week 7

Dear All,

We are delighted to announce that the FOCCS May Fayre is back for 2022! This annual event is a highlight in the Christ Church calendar but it can only go ahead if a willing team of volunteers step up to help. Please see the flyer at the end of this newsletter for further details and contact FOCCS, by half term, if you wish to get involved.

We were delighted to announce that we will welcome two authors to visit the school next term and look forward to welcoming Rob Starling to FS2/KS1 and Hana Tookey to KS2. Please remember to send in your pre orders for books (further details were sent out in a separate letter this week).

At Christ Church, we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday the 4th of March (please note that this is a day after the national event). We will be asking the children (and staff) to wear a character/book related costume on this day and wanted to give you plenty of warning (and half term) to prepare! There are some great ideas on the WBD website to inspire you. World Book Day Dress Up Ideas

With this newsletter we also wanted to share a 100 book list from The Book Trust. This details the 100 best books of the last 100 years – I wonder how many you can tick off of the list? With reading in mind, please don't forget that the deadline for the Extreme Reading Challenge is this Friday.

I wish you all a happy half term when it arrives, and thank you all for your support and resilience during another challenging term.

Best Wishes,
From Miss Brotherton
