

Christ Church CE VC Primary School

A strong school, seeking the right leader!

Christ Church CE VC Primary School in Bradford-on-Avon, a popular school with 'Good' Ofsted and SIAMS ratings, is looking for an energetic and enthusiastic Headteacher to continue and develop its high standards of education in a welcoming, inspiring and supportive environment.

The Board of Governors invites applications from exceptional primary phase headteachers with a proven track record of leadership and management, who can demonstrate the skills to:

- Effectively lead and manage a large primary school with well-kept modern buildings, beautiful grounds, and a budget to match;
- Inspire, lead and support a highly skilled and professional teaching staff who are committed to continually improving their approach to teaching, learning and assessment;
- Build positive relationships with the school's stakeholders: pupils, all staff, Board of Governors, parents, the Parish Church and outside agencies;
- Extend their extensive knowledge of current curriculum development and best practice, as well as the use of technology;
- Build on our vision and robust strategies to successfully develop and improve an already thriving school in challenging times;
- Collaborate with a team of dedicated, hard-working governors who aim to support the Headteacher's work and to monitor the school's progress.
