CHURCHES OF
NORTH
BRADFORD
ON AVON
& VILLAGES

Dear Friends,

Christmas advertising is everywhere at the moment. I've got to the point where I can guess the shop or brand as soon as the music or slogan appears! But it has got me thinking about what slogan we might use for Christmas, and the best that I can come up with is

A young teenage girl, a bunch of bedraggled outsiders whom nobody noticed, learned sages from the East all chosen and welcomed. Soon after Jesus' birth, he and his family had to escape to Egypt, living life as a refugee or asylum seeker, making a home in a strange land reliant on the kindness and generosity of others. The arrival of the Son of God into our world is precious on so many levels, not least because of the deliberate way God chose to include all peoples in his story of salvation. It reminds us that nobody is outside of God's love, nobody is unworthy, nobody should be left feeling like they are alone or rejected.

Sometimes, there is a danger that faith can be used for our own purposes, to fit the story that we want God to fit, rather than telling the story that God wants to be known and shared. Christmas is an opportunity for us to tell, once again, God's story, his plan for the world which he loves. In the same way that on that first Christmas God chose people from all walks of life, he wants us to share His story with all people, so that nobody remains left on the outside of the stable.

We have so many different services taking place over the coming week: services for the young and the not so young, those who have had a good year and those who have had a tough year. If each of us can think of just one person to invite into the stable, just think of how full and noisy that stable could be (a bit like I imagine it would have been for Mary, Joseph and baby Jesus).

Each person in the story of the first Christmas had an encounter which was transformational: the shepherds went off singing and praising, the magi bowed down in adoration, Mary quietly pondered. My prayer for us and for all whom we invite this Christmas, is that we too will have our own encounter as we are welcomed at the stable.

Happy Christmas and prayers for a peace-filled new year.

Every blessing,
Katie

Christmas preparations across the Benefice

Over the last few weeks our churches have been filled with a festive hum of activity as we prepare for Christmas. Our churches have been beautifully decorated with lights, Christmas trees, festive flowers and nativity scenes. In addition to our usual activities and services, our churches have hosted 5 school/pre-school nativity performances (plus numerous rehearsals), 3 school Christmas services, a Christmas café, a village breakfast, 2 toddler group Christmas parties and a Christmas Conversation and Craft.

Thank you so much to everyone for all the time and hard work that goes in to making our churches such special, warm and welcoming places at this time of year.

PLASTIC BOTTLE REQUEST

In preparation for a project at Christ Church in the new year, please could you save the base of your plastic bottles (just the bottom of the bottle please) to donate to this project.

Bottle bases can be left in the box inside the south door at Christ Church.
Thank you very much,
Anne Hilton

SOUTH WRAXALL VILLAGE BREAKFAST

On a bright sunny morning we welcomed 70 or so people to South Wraxall village hall for our December Breakfast. There was a cheerful noise coming from the nine tables as our guests caught up with all the latest gossip with family and friends. Our willing volunteers cooked, served tables and, not least, did lots of washing up!

All the hard work and your generous donations resulted in at least £650 (after paying for the food) going towards the upkeep of St James's, South Wraxall parish church.

As always, we are grateful to Rob at The Longs Arms and Bella at Home Farm for supplying delicious village produce.

Thank you to all for your support.

Jean Atkin
